

Study Regulations Master's Degree Programme Transversal Design

of 1 September 2024

Based on the regulatory framework regarding the degree programmes at the University of Applied Sciences and Arts Northwestern Switzerland (FHNW) of 2 February 2015 (as of 21 June 2021) and the regulatory framework regarding the limitation of study places in the Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes at the FHNW University of 24 August 2020, along with the Study and Examination Regulations regarding the Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes at the Basel Academy of Art and Design FHNW (HGK Basel FHNW) of 1 September 2024, the director of HGK Basel FHNW issues at the request of the head of the degree programme the following Study Regulations for the Master's degree programme Transversal Design.

Part 1: General Remarks

Section 1 Scope

The following Study Regulations, in complement to the Study and Examination Regulations (StuER) for Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes at the Basel Academy of Art and Design FHNW of 1 September 2024, govern the legal conditions concerning admission, aptitude assessment, enrolment, studies (structure, process, duration, academic performance), performance assessment, and the attainment of the degree "Master of Arts FHNW in Transversal Design" at the Basel Academy of Art and Design FHNW. The syllabus in the appendix is an integral part of these Study Regulations.

Part 2: Studying

Sect. 2 Admission requirements

- Admission requirements*
- 1 The requirements regarding admission to the Master's degree programme Transversal Design at the Basel Academy of Art and Design FHNW are defined in section 3, para. 20 of the StuER.
- Registration*
- 2 To register for the Master's degree programme Transversal Design, applicants are requested to submit documents in accordance with the specifications listed in the registration portal, i.e., in particular:
 - Proof of compliance with admission requirements
 - Motivation letter
 - Portfolio (documentation of artistic/design-based work to date)
 - CV in tabular format
- Proof of language competence*
- 3 The language of tuition is English. Applicants are required to submit proof of their language proficiency in English in the form of a certificate (B2 according to the standard European reference framework or equivalent) or otherwise (e.g. first language or education in an English-speaking country) before they commence their studies. Applicants with a Swiss school certificate are not required to provide evidence of their language competence.
 - 4 Upon request, prospective students can apply for a study place outside the usual times of application. In this case, the decision concerning admission to the aptitude assessment, the assessment process, the appraisal of the aptitude assessment, and admission is taken by the head of the degree programme.

Sect. 3

Aptitude assessment

Aptitude assessment: prerequisites

- 1 In the course of the aptitude assessment, it is ascertained whether a candidate has sufficient artistic /design potential to qualify for the Master's degree programme.
- 2 Participation in the aptitude assessment implies the following prerequisites:
 - a. Compliance with the admission requirements pursuant to sect. 2, para. 1 of these Study Regulations;
 - b. Submission of the complete registration documents pursuant to sect. 2, paras. 2 and 3.

Admission decision and assessment by the admissions panel

- 3 If the admission requirements pursuant to para. 2 are met, the application documents are submitted to the respective panel for review. If the admission requirements pursuant to para. 2 are not fulfilled, a negative admission decision according to sect. 12, paras. 1 of the StuER shall be issued in the form of a ruling, including the appropriate information on legal remedy.

Admissions panel

- 4 For the planning and carrying out of the aptitude assessment, the head of the degree programme Transversal Design shall appoint a panel.

Procedure of aptitude assessment

- 5 The aptitude assessment is carried out in two steps:
 - Part 1: Appraisal of the submitted portfolio and motivation letter by the admissions panel;
 - Part 2: Suitability and subject-based interview with a focus on the submitted portfolio and motivation letter.

Part 1 of the aptitude assessment

- 6 Part 1 of the assessment is evaluated on the basis of the following criteria on a 2-point scale as either "pass" or "failed":

Format	Rating criteria
• Portfolio	- Contextuality and intentionality as to the portfolio
• Motivation letter	- Motivation to study Transversal Design - Ability to self-evaluate and self-reflect

The rating criteria are each awarded a maximum of 3 points and weighted equally in the overall appraisal. The admissions panel determines the minimum number of score points required to receive a "pass" in part 1 of the aptitude assessment.

Decision part 1

- 7 Candidates given an insufficient grade in part 1 of the aptitude assessment by the admissions panel shall receive a negative admission decision in form of a ruling, including the appropriate information on legal remedy. Candidates with a sufficient grade shall receive an invitation to part 2 of the aptitude assessment.

Part 2 of aptitude assessment

- 8 Part 2 of the aptitude assessment is evaluated on the basis of the following criteria on a 2-point scale as either "pass" or "failed":

Format	Rating criteria
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Suitability and subject-based interview 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> High degree of reflection and motivation for Transversal Design in a candidate's own work; Positioning of own expert knowledge Discourse skills

Admission decision 9 The rating criteria are each awarded a maximum of 3 points and weighted equally in the overall result. The admissions panel determines the minimum number of score points required to receive a "pass" in part 2 of the aptitude assessment.

Retake 10 The admission procedure can be repeated twice.

Sect. 4 Enrolment procedure

Ranked order of admission 1 In the enrolment procedure, the available study places are assigned to the candidates that fulfil the admission requirements and have passed their aptitude assessment according to a ranking system and their overall achievement in the assessment, pursuant to Sect. 3 para. 9. Candidates that were not awarded a study place on the basis of their ranking in the assessment, receive confirmation that they figure on the ranked waiting list. Candidates who definitely cannot be assigned a study place are handed a negative admission decision in the form of a ruling, including the appropriate information on legal remedy, latest before the start of the degree programme.

Ranked waiting list 2 With the start of each new academic year, the current ranked waiting list is deleted definitely.

Eligibility of ECTS credits 3 When a student transfers to the Master's degree programme Transversal Design from another degree course at HGK Basel FHNW or from a different university offering an equivalent degree programme, the head of the degree programme shall decide on whether and how the already completed achievements are to be rated, how the achieved ECTS credits are to be credited as well as the modalities of the transfer to the appropriate semester.

Sect. 5 Study design

Structure 1 The degree programme is modular in structure and involves a total of 120 ECTS credits.

Modules 2 A module is a conceptual, time-bounded teaching and learning unit focusing on a thematic or subject-based topic and defined by specifically outlined competencies as described in the respective module description. A module is an assessment unit and usually completed in one semester.

Courses 3 A module can consist of one or more courses.

Module groups 4 Modules can be combined to form module groups. Details are specified in the syllabus (appendix) of the Study Regulations.

Types of modules 5 HGK Basel FHNW recognizes three types of modules:

- Compulsory modules that must be attended;
- Compulsory modules of choice, to be selected in a certain number from a group of modules;
- Elective modules as listed in the respective syllabus or offered by other HGK Basel FHNW degree programmes or by other universities.

Module descriptions 6 Pursuant to sect. 4, para. 6 of the StuER, the module descriptions are published before the start of a new semester in the course catalogue of HGK Basel FHNW.

Academic year 6 The lecture-free period as defined by HGK Basel FHNW's academic calendar (sect. 7, para. 3 of StuER) can, to a limited extent, be used to for modules, workshops, and study trips.

Sect. 6 Course of Studies

Syllabus 1 The syllabus lists the scheduled time sequence of the modules to be completed, the respective type of modules, the associated module groups as well as the required number of ECTS credits.
2 The degree programme is a full-time study in which the modules must be completed in accordance with the syllabus. Splitting study time is only permitted upon reasoned request (sect. 6, para. 4 of the StuER) in consultation with and following the approval of the head of the degree programme.

Exchange semester 3 Students of the degree programme Transversal Design are given the opportunity to conduct an exchange semester at a different university. In this case, an application must be submitted to the head of the degree programme in good time.

Interruption of studies 4 According to sect. 6, para. 3 of StuER, an interruption of studies (leave of absence usually granted for one semester) shall be regulated as follows:
a. The respective request must be submitted in writing or by email to the office of the degree programme and confirmed by the latter at least two months before the start of the semester;
b. As a result, the duration of studies may take up to a year longer;
c. Any interruption may not exceed the duration of 4 semesters. The time out is not factored in when determining the maximum duration of studies.

Intellectual property and IRF 5 Regarding intellectual property rights to student works, the provisions in sect. 7, paras. 21 through 23 of the Study and Examination Regulations apply. Any alternative arrangement as well as supplementary details must be agreed upon in writing between the student and the head of the degree programme.

Equipment 6 From the start of their studies, students have to be in possession of a computer (laptop) that is capable of processing the programmes commonly used at HGK Basel FHNW.

Sect. 7 Academic performances

Performance assessments 1 Type, form and rating of performance assessments as well as the mode by which modules are assessed are set out in the module guide. The module descriptions therein are listed in the HGK Basel FHNW's course catalogue.

Attendance and reporting duty 2 If attendance is described as compulsory in the module description, even excused absences are treated as absences according to sect. 10, para. 4 of StuER. If the rate of excused absences exceeds 20%, students are given the chance to compensate for the absence by conducting a follow-up performance. However, there is no entitlement to this. The decision lies within the competence of the lecturer responsible for the module in consultation with the head of the degree programme.

Deregistration from modules 3 Deregistration from modules offered by the degree programme can be submitted by email to the programme administration no later than two weeks after the start of the semester. In the case of failure to deregister or deregistering too late, appraisal will ensue pursuant to sect. 5, para. 4 of the StuER.

- 4 In order to pass a module, students must not only deliver a satisfactory performance, but also fulfil any mandatory attendance requirements. If it becomes evident that the compulsory rate of attendance in a module can no longer be met, a student may be barred from participating in performance assessments.

Retake

- 4 Failed modules can be repeated at the earliest in the following year.

Sect. 8

Graduation

Prerequisites

- 1 Students are admitted to the Master's thesis if they have successfully completed all the prescribed modules according to the syllabus and attained the required number of ECTS credits.

Registration for Master's thesis (graduation)

- 2 Registration for graduation (registration form "Completing the Master's degree") is to be submitted with all the required documents and within the published deadline to the office of the degree programme. If this registration form is not submitted in time, graduation must be postponed to the next possible date.

Master's thesis

- 3 Students shall submit to the head of the degree programme a proposal in which they outline the subject of their MA thesis and specify the work's focus in terms of content and form.

Examination panel

- 4 The head of the respective degree programme is responsible for overseeing the content and correct organizational procedure of the Master' thesis and appoints the internal and external members of the examination panel.

Guideline Master's thesis

- 5 The "Guideline Master's Thesis" contains information concerning the assignment, the works to be submitted, the volume of the thesis, the deadlines, the rules of supervision (mentoring and expert guidance), the exam setting, the presentation format as well as the composition of the examination panel. The document also includes the evaluation criteria and their weighting, the grading system, the IRF instructions according to sect. 7, para. 23 of StuER, as well as the final provisions. The guideline is issued by the head of the degree programme and published at prior to start of the fourth semester.

Exam documentation

- 6 The assessment of the works completed in connection with the Master's thesis is recorded in an examination protocol.

Retake

- 7 If a Master's thesis is rated insufficient, a student is given the opportunity to retake the MA thesis with a new topic in the following year.

Graduation

- 8 The Master's degree programme has been successfully completed when the student:
 - has attained 120 ECTS credits in accordance with the syllabus;
 - has fulfilled all the requirements in accordance with the Study Regulations;
 - has attained at least 60 ECTS credits and completed the Master's thesis at HGK Basel FHNW.
